A Time to Remember

For this is the time where we stand here.

Remembering the memories
throughout this year

Our love and strength brought us to this day,

Helping each other in every way.

But now it's time for us
to leave,

The happy memories we must conceive.

Memories

We remember the fun times, the good and the bad,
We remember the nice times, the happy and sad.

With the friends that we had all through the year,
The times we spent together are the memories that we share.

Memories of the noises, bouncing off the walls,
Memories of the people that filled the now empty halls.

The first day of school with a whole year to face,
With friends that stick by us setting the pace;

The last day of school with the summer to come,
The memories we have include each and every one.

Memories, Memories, all through the year,
Memories, Memories are the times that we share.
